Category: business
Evidence: Website inspection evidence shows websiteExists is false, status is not_available, and pagesInspected is 0.
Severity: critical
Confidence: high
Expected Impact: Enables digital discovery, membership applications, and professional credibility.
Recommendation: Develop and launch a responsive, mobile-friendly official website for Gymkhana Club.

Title: Missing Contact Information and Digital Engagement
Category: content
Evidence: Phone and email fields in the business profile are null, and no website exists.
Severity: high
Confidence: high
Expected Impact: Reduces customer friction and increases membership inquiries.
Recommendation: Publish official contact details, operating hours, and an inquiry form on a new web presence and update directory listings.

Action Plan

Task: Establish Domain and Hosting
Priority: P0
Rationale: A dedicated domain and hosting environment are prerequisites for launching an official web presence.
Deliverable: Configured domain name and secure web hosting server.

Acceptance Criteria

- Domain registered and active

- SSL certificate installed (HTTPS enabled)
- Hosting environment deployed and accessible

Task: Develop Core Website Pages

Priority: P1

Rationale: Provides essential information to prospective and existing club members.

Deliverable: Fully functional responsive website featuring Home, About Us, Facilities, Membership, and Contact pages.

Acceptance Criteria

- All five core pages developed and styled according to design direction
- Mobile responsiveness verified across standard screen sizes
- Contact form functional and transmitting submissions

Task: Update Local Business Listings

Priority: P2

Rationale: Ensures accurate contact information and links the Google Maps listing to the new website.

Deliverable: Updated Google Business Profile with website URL and verified contact details.

Acceptance Criteria

- Google Maps listing updated with official website URL
- Operating hours and contact phone/email populated if available

Limitations

- No official website existed at the time of the audit, preventing technical inspection, UX walkthroughs, and performance testing.
- Competitors were not explicitly present in the supplied business profile or evidence, so competitor insights were omitted in accordance with instructions.
- Contact phone number and email address were missing from the provided business profile.

Design Direction

Imagery: High-quality photography of actual club facilities, sports equipment, courts, and community members engaged in activities.

Typography: Modern sans-serif fonts such as Inter or Roboto for optimal readability across desktop and mobile devices.

Visual Style: Clean, professional, and welcoming sports club aesthetic emphasizing community and active lifestyle.

Color Direction: Athletic and trustworthy color palette featuring deep greens or navy blues paired with energetic accent colors like gold or bright green.

Layout Principles

- Mobile-first responsive grid system
- Clear visual hierarchy with prominent call-to-action buttons for membership and contact
- Generous whitespace and fast-loading image assets

Interaction Principles

- Intuitive navigation menus with sticky headers

- Accessible form inputs with clear validation states
- Smooth scrolling and fast page transitions

Website Assessment

Strengths

- Physical location is established with a Google Maps listing (cid=5346124819679258276)

Weaknesses

- Complete absence of a dedicated official website
- Lack of digital touchpoints for prospective members to view facilities or apply online
- Missing contact details such as phone number and email address in the provided profile

Evidence Gaps

- No website HTML or pages available to inspect
- Unknown pricing, membership tiers, operating hours, and exact amenities
- Absence of direct digital customer feedback channels

Overall Summary: No official website was provided in the business profile or detected during inspection. The online presence appears to rely entirely on third-party listings such as Google Maps.
